

RAP & POETRY AGAINST RACISM AND DISCRIMINATION

"WORD UP!" - Rap and poetry against racism and discrimination

Our invitation to you:

Rap and Poetry Slam Workshop weekends, online! We exchange our views about racism and discrimination and package our thoughts in rap texts and poetry slams!

You are warm-heartedly invited to join us on one of the weekends!

No prior knowledge is required. The workshop weekends are free!

After the online workshop weekends, we will record the songs and slams on video during a Grand Finale!

Our objective: We want to make your ideas visible and reach a lot of people with your messages!

Participation is open to all young people between the ages of 15-27 years old from the Ebersberg District (Landkreis Ebersberg) and the Munich city area (Stadtgebiet München).

Dates for the workshop weekends:

Each weekend workshop will take place from a Friday to a Sunday.

The three alternative workshop dates are 19 to 21 February 2021, 26 to 28 February 2021, or 12 to 14 March 2021. *

In each case on Friday 17:00 to 21:00, Saturday 12:00 to 17:00, and Sunday 12:00 to 16:00.

The Finale will take place from 19 to 20 March 2021 as part of the „International Weeks against Racism“ !

Workshops will be moderated by:

Achim Seger, also known under his artist's name of Waseem. He is engaged in various social projects in which he links up music and politics. As activist, artist, rapper, poet, DJ and event organiser, Waseem influences our society; his focus is always to give people the possibility to express themselves and to claim rights.

Want to know more about the project? Click on the link to our website!

Registration by e-mail to: leonhard.martz@kjr-ebe.de

(*Please indicate the date of the weekend on which you want to participate.)

A project of:

Das Projekt wird finanziell gefördert von:

Das Projekt wird unterstützt von:

